

Malpractice and Maladministration Policy

Designated Malpractice/Maladministration Officer: Amanda Charlton

The Changist is committed to providing excellent services through their learning environments and by eliminating any suspected malpractice and maladministration in the management of our organisation and in the delivery of qualifications. [Insert name of centre] aims to promote accountability and to encourage the openness to disclose any allegations of malpractice and maladministration in the workplace.

The Head of Centre Carol Pearce is responsible for ensuring that this policy is published, implemented and accessible to all personnel, learners and any relevant third parties. The Head of Centre will also ensure that all personnel have read and understood this policy and that any amendments to the policy are communicated to relevant parties.

Learners should be made aware of this policy at the start of their course/programme and the policy should be easily accessible (website, intranet, booklets).

Objectives

The key objective of this policy is to mitigate and/or manage any adverse effects that could arise from malpractice/maladministration. Examples of malpractice or maladministration may include:

- a learner committing plagiarism by copying and passing off the whole or part(s) of another person's work, with or without the originator's permission and without appropriately acknowledging the source.
- failing to comply with the assessor's/invigilator's instructions and/or 1st4sport Qualification's regulations in relation to the assessment.
- misusing assessment material.
- impersonating others by pretending to be someone else, in order to produce the work for another, or arranging for another to take one's place in an assessment.
- misusing the access arrangements via reasonable adjustments or special considerations with the aim of influencing the outcome of the assessment.
- failing to comply with qualification, assessment and 1st4sport Qualification conditions and regulations.
- behaving in such a way as to undermine the integrity of the assessment.
- fabricating and/or altering results and/or evidence, documents and fraudulent claiming of certificates.

Definitions

Malpractice is defined as any deliberate activity, neglect, default or other practice that is unethical or unlawful, which breaches regulations and which compromises the integrity of our organisational statuses, financial stability, reputation, the reputation of our stakeholders and the qualifications and related assessments we are approved to deliver.

Maladministration is any activity which is not deliberate, but which neglects, defaults on regulation, conditions placed upon us by awarding organisations or compromises the integrity of our organisational statuses, financial stability, reputation, the reputation of our stakeholders and the qualifications and related assessments we are approved to deliver. This includes accidental non-compliance with any centre policy, procedure or guidance.

Malpractice/Maladministration Allegations Reporting Procedure

Any allegations of malpractice or maladministration should be reported and investigated by following the procedure outlined below. All confirmed allegations of Malpractice or Maladministration must be reported to 1st4sport Qualifications, by emailing imanagement@1st4sportqualifications.com
